FUTURE GOALS

- Short Term Goal: To get a job in reputed company.
- Long Term Goal: To achieve a good position in that company which will help to build my career and will also help the company.
- In the next upcoming years I see myself on such a position where I will be taking as many complex assignments as the position would allow and will be working with industry experts, senior industry professionals and project managers.
- My Ideal path would also include working abroad for couple of years if the company demands.
